

The Author & Illustrator

Antje Damm, born in Wiesbaden in 1965, studied Architecture in Wiesbaden and lives near Gießen with her husband and their four daughters. One senses her strong bond to children and their way of thinking in all of her books. Her question book Ask me! has already seen ten editions and has been translated into 14 languages.

REVIEWS

“One cannot look at such a book for long enough.” - Die Welt

“There are few books that are so gentle, so artistic, so convicting and at the same time truly and in the best sense suitable for children. Antje Damm`s timeless as well as universal picture book belongs to those books for which you should absolutely take the time!” - kinderbuchcouch.de

- Fantastic rendition of an important topic
- Philosophy for the youngest
- Encourages vivid discussion

ANTJE DAMM

All the Time in the World

Summertime, wintertime, spare time, timeout, best-before-dates – everything has its own time. Antje Damm renders time both visible and tangible – with photos, pictures and thought-provoking impulses. A book that not only children can spend a great deal of time with!

It is rather strange with time: sometimes we have too much, sometimes too little – and then there are moments where we would like to stop it altogether. Like through a kaleidoscope we see valuable, random, funny and sad, important and seemingly inconsequential points of time. And they are all part of our life. This certainly makes this so much more than a three-minute-picture book, but a book with which you can forget about time while looking, contemplating and narrating. and their four daughters. One senses her strong bond to children and their way of thinking in all of her books. time while looking, contemplating and narrating.

Original title: Alle Zeit der Welt
Publisher: Moritz Verlag
Format: hc | 196x 152mm
Extent: 96 pp
Publication: July 2010
Age: 6+ | RRP: € 13.80

Rights sold: Spanish (Latin America)

- 7 Best Books for Young Readers – June 2007
- List of Recommendations—Luchs Jurors
- List of Recommendations—Catholic Prize for Children's and Young Adult Books
- List of Recommendations—Illustration Award for Children's Books 2008

NON-FICTION PICTURE BOOK
 Contact: anja@mundtagency.com