The Author & Illustrator:

Susanne Göhlich, born in Jena in 1972, lives in Leipzig. She started drawing whilst studying History of Art in Leipzig and stuck to it. Today she works as a freelance illustrator of posters, children's and school books. Moritz Verlag published her board book "Words of the Bible" and Klett Kinderbuch her illustrations to the splendid series "The Wild Dwarves".

SUSANNE GÖHLICH

Little Bear's the Worse for Wear

Lena's bear is feeling ill. Everyone chips in to help make him feel better. The horse brings its blanket, the duck warm milk with honey, the polar bear lends bear his scarf and so on. Until, at the end, thanks to the help of his friends, bear is already feeling a lot better.

Just as in It's Bedtime

turns Lena's soft toys into the protagonists in this charming board book—just like children do with their toys every evening.
