

Fox Goes Driving

Susanne Straßer

Fox drives a car. Tap tap, with his feet. Slow at first, then faster and faster.

Over gravel - helter-skelter! Through puddles - splash! The fox whizzes through the pictures so fast that he doesn't even notice others hopping on on every double page: mouse and mole, beetle and rabbit.

The child comes running as the last stowaway to join the crazy ride, but - oops! - now the whole caper is revealed!
