

The Forest Library

Seoha Lim

When the new day finally dawns in the forest, the animals come together and meet in a pretty little library.

They enjoy precious moments around books, activities, and games.

A beautiful and poetic book.

Seoha Lim is an illustrator. As a child, Seoha wanted to draw beautiful things when she grew up ... which brought her to study creative writing and illustration. Since her childhood she has dreamed of a world where animals and humans live in perfect harmony. It is this imaginary world that inspires her illustrations. Today, her illustration with is mainly done with coloured pencils. Seoha Lim lives in Canada.
