

Mia and Those from No. 19— Alpaca Circus!

N i c o l e M a h n e

What is the Alpaca doing in the senior citizens' flat share?

Mr. Rippel, one of the residents from the supervised senior citizens' flat in Mia's street, suddenly turns up with an alpaca in tow. Did he kidnap it? Or did it run to him? Carer Holger wants to get rid of the animal as quickly as possible, especially as the alpaca has apparently fallen in love with Holger and won't leave his side.

But it is impossible to find out from Mr. Rippel where he got the animal from. Maybe from the circus that is currently in town? Third grader Mia and her friend Jil take matters into their hands. The two girls discover that all the circus posters have had black paint sprayed all over them. Now what is that all about?

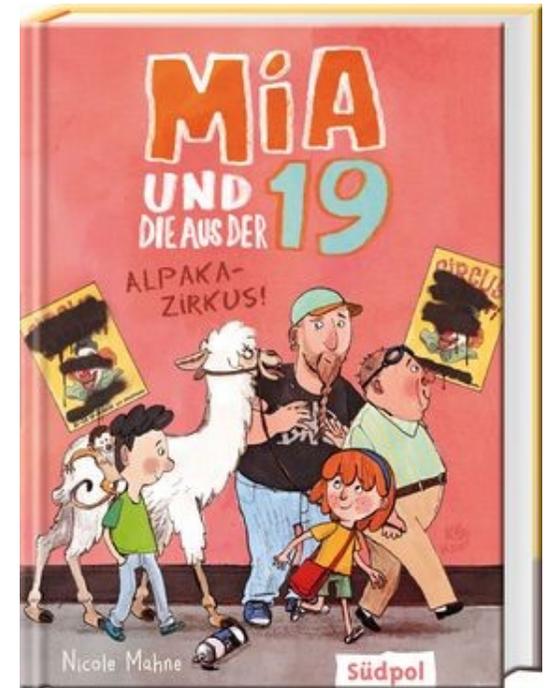

Praise for volume 1

"A remarkable debut with situation comedy and splendid deadpan dialogue." – Börsenblatt Leselotse

"Nicole Mahne tells the story with a wonderfully wry sense of humour and also addresses topics such as tolerance, empathy and friendship in a very relaxed way. A great children's crime thriller with added value!" – Kilifü - Almanac of Children's Literature 2020/2021
