KRISTINA ANDRES

Good Night, Sleep Tight!

Eleven and half good night stories with Fox and Rabbit

Fox and rabbit lived far away, behind the mole hills, in a small yellow house. If they can't sleep, they count the good nights (335 in total). If they wish each other a good night, the rustling pear tree, the raspberries and the stars join in. If rabbit is ill and in his feverish delirium believes that it snows, then fox pushes him on his sledge through the cherry blossom 'snow' in the middle of Spring. They experience adventurous nights in a tent, transport fish in the kangaroo's pouch and practice how to sleep like bats.

Kristina Andres' good night stories with fox and rabbit are heart-warming. They tell of friendship, security, life in the country and have everything it takes to make this a favourite book!
