

The Illustrator

Lili la Baleine—Lili has been drawing from a young age and she didn't do much else. As she grew older, her drawing became less. Then she became a school teacher and wasn't able to draw at all! Until her nine-months transformation into a whale introduced Lili to traditional and soon after digital drawing. Now she draws everywhere, all the time!

The Author

Ingrid Chabbert was born in 1978 and has written since childhood, everywhere and on anything. She did not study Literature, but how to play with words. Talking to children about life is her passion. Her first picture book was published in 2010. More than sixty books have been published since.

LILI LA BALEINE & INGRID CHABBERT

This Giant, My Friend

Luna has a special best friend. It is a giant, a real, born-and-bred giant. They spend all their time together, from morning to night.

But one day he disappears, where can he possibly have gone? Luna searches for him everywhere, until she receives a letter from her best friend. He is in trouble and only Luna can help him ...

REVIEWS

"The graphic universe of Lili la Baleine is delicious, and it perfectly accompanies the poetry of Ingrid Chabbert's words." - www.la-licorne-a-lunettes.fr

"In this beautiful picture book we discover a gentle story about friendship, difference, hope; a poetic text highlighted by the magnificent illustrations by Lili la Baleine. Imagination? Reality? It does not matter in the end, when you can just let yourself get carried away by a story full of tenderness and courage!" - lheuredelire.wordpress.com

- Topics: Being different, friendship, courage, solidarity
- A brave and resourceful heroine
- Splendid illustrations
