

Publisher: Südpol Verlag
Format: hc | 130 x 195 mm
Extent: 128 pages
 with 55 b&w illustrations
Publication: February 2015
Age: 8+

All rights available except for Korean language rights

For further information contact:
 anja@mundtagency.com

The Author:

Andrea Poßberg was born in the Rhineland. She studied geography, sociology and politics in Düsseldorf. Her first German teacher, who was capable of getting excited by stories such as “Violetta the flying girl from Mars”, awakened her passion for language. She lives in Grevenbroich with her husband and their three children.

The Illustrator:

Corinna Böckmann was born in 1968 and started working for an advertising agency at the age of 16 until she took off on her own as a freelance graphic artist and illustrator herself. She has three children and lives near Cologne with her family and dog.

Sales points

- Recommended by the WWF Young Panda Children's Programme
- Suspenseful, entertaining, quick-witted
- Funny dialogues, lively illustrations
- Fascinating topic: birds of prey

Recommended by the WWF YOUNG
 PANDA Children's Programme

ANDREA POßBERG & CORINNA BÖCKMANN

The Green Pirates Trapped Birds of Prey

Hot on the trappers' trail—the fourth case for the Green Pirates

Such cruelty to animals! In the forest, the Green Pirates Ben, Flora, Jannik, Lennart and Pauline come across a trapped bird of prey. They take it to a nearby bird rescue station, where the injured raptor is looked after. The rescue team has found several traps and poisoned baits of late, despite the fact that birds of prey are under wildlife protection. Who is behind the nasty attacks? Mr. Bonneschranz, who breeds carrier pigeons and who has already lost some of his birds to the raptors? Or the huntsman Ferdinand Wassenberg, who is a close friend of the mayor? And why does a mysterious tree-knocker keep creeping through the forest? The Green Pirates lie in wait ...

Reviews of the previous three volumes

“A true environmental crime story to get engrossed in.” - liesLotte

“... thrilling adventure with learning effect .” - his & her books

“... a series that combines suspense with the love of nature and animals.” - ekz

“Bang up-to-date topic and fascinating detective adventure of a teen gang.” - Jungenleseliste, Mandat [boys' reading list]