At night, everyone stops what they're doing and the silence becomes omnipresent. The pirate, the dog, and the girl with the basket; they're all asleep, except the owl, who stays watch.

Estela Antín was born in Buenos Aires 45 years ago. At 22, she came to live in Spain to work as a publicity writer. She is self-taught and has been writing since she was a little girl: tales, poetry, plays and short stories. She writes and illustrates children's books.

At Takatuka we have also published her album, "Humberto, the Centipede", illustrated by Paco Martinez, and "Where Can I Hide?"
